

OET Preparation for Overseas Health Professionals 2010

Prepare for the Occupational English Test (OET)

Are you an overseas qualified health professional (e.g., doctor, dentist, pharmacist, nurse, dietitian, physiotherapist, speech therapist, radiographer or veterinarian) of non-English speaking background with Intermediate to Advanced English who would like to prepare for the Occupational English Test?

What the course includes:

The course prepares you for the four components of the OET.

- Speaking: health professional/client roleplays
- Writing: referral letter or similar
- Listening: lecture & professional consultation
- Reading: based on medical/scientific texts

Our courses include:

- ⊙ reading, writing, listening and speaking skills development in a medical context
- ⊙ cross-cultural awareness
- ⊙ understanding of colloquial and idiomatic English
- ⊙ OET test practice
- ⊙ Use of Library Support Unit, and Computer Laboratory for skills development outside class time

A range of course times to suit you

Courses are available full time, part time, day or evening. Part time students may enrol in the whole course or in individual skills modules.

Who administers the OET Test?

OET is administered by the OET Centre in Melbourne. For more information about the OET or to book for the test, contact the OET Centre Tel: 61 3 9825 3800
